

Yah's Children

Are we Yah's children? Let us review where we are today two hundred years plus after the signing and the implementing of the Constitution of the United States of America. This study will focus on one subject—babies, children made in the image of Yah.

Gen. 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. 28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Matt. 4:4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

After Yah created man in His image, He proceeded to give mankind a commandment to be fruitful and multiply; also, for humans live his or her life in loving obedience, subjected to every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God as recorded in Matt. 4:4 and also Luke 4:4.

The Supreme Court heads the judiciary branch of our government, set apart to give final rulings which includes "points in the constitution" and/or federal law. The Constitution incorporates a system of fundamental laws and principles that prescribe the nature, function and limits of a government or other institution. We have 9 justices appointed for life by the President that is in office at the time a vacancy is to be filled. The Justices should not be political, however, the President appointing the Justice will choose one whose values and principles are similar to his or hers.

In 1973, a ruling came down from the Supreme Court of the United States taking away the rights of individual states in determining a woman's prerogative to have an abortion, thus opening the door for the legalization of abortion. Seven Justices voted against state rights on abortion favoring a federal law which allowed abortion in the first trimester. Six of the seven Justices had been appointed by a Republican or Conservative President.

The baby being formed and growing in a woman's body is referred to as an embryo for the first eight weeks and from then on is referred to as a fetus, with the first twelve weeks considered the first trimester.

Using statistics exclusive to the United States, two different parameters are used when seeking the number of abortions performed since 1973. Surgical abortions total approximately 54 million with the chemically induced number set at approximately 250 million. Chemical or medical abortions involve a woman taking of two medicines to end the pregnancy which takes three to four days until the fetal (baby) tissue has been expelled. This procedure generates a brutal list of side effects that cause extreme pain and cramps for the woman; all the while she of course is told the baby feels nothing. How can we believe no feeling is involved while this beginning of life is literally being poisoned and ripped apart?

There are two different surgical procedures used to discard this unwanted life: A Manual Vacuum Aspiration where a doctor uses a handheld device to suction out the baby. The other procedure is a D&E, (Dilation and Evacuation), which uses forceps, a scraping tool and suction. According to a prevalent, persistent viewpoint, the fetus is not a life and definitely has no feelings of pain. Incredibly how illogical in thinking that such a disastrous disturbance of a fetus inflicts no pain nor a break in the continuum in the development of a human life, especially since no human ever came down the birth canal without first having existed as a fetus!

There is the case of a doctor in the Philadelphia area who has been tried and convicted for the murder of babies born after botched abortions. These were late term abortions where the baby was born alive. This fiend ended the life of the baby by snipping the neck with large scissors. Over 300 million of Yah's children have never taken a breath, had anyone hold them, no one to sing to them, no one to kiss their boo-boos, no one to teach them about their loving Father in heaven who was about to breathe His breath of life into their small, tiny and frail bodies.

Roe vs Wade originally allowed abortion during the first trimester. Since that time, there have been abortions performed in the second trimester which have led to late term or third trimester murders. In January of this year, the New York State Legislature passed the "Reproductive Health Act" that legalized medical personnel to murder a fully formed baby up to the moment of birth! This fatal decision would be jointly made by the mother to be and medical personnel, not necessarily a doctor. This law would allow terminating a life based on the mental and emotional health of the mother. This loophole allows this heinous act to take place based on feelings, not on the physical health of the mother.

We have thus far presented man's decisions and choices regarding abortion; let us now review Yah's feelings and emotions about this topic.

Gen. 9:6 Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man.

Many will argue this verse does not refer to a "fetus" since this innocent baby cannot yet live outside the womb of its mother. Let us continue to see when Yah considers this baby to be a viable, living human being.

Job 31:15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?

The word "fashion" is Strong's # 03559 meaning to confirm; perfect (make); establish; formed

Psalm 119:73 JOD. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

Psalm 127-3 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward. 4 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

Isa. 44: 2 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

Isa. 46:3 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb

Isa. 49:5 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

Jer. 1:5 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

Exodus 21:22 "If men fight, and hurt a woman with child, so that she gives birth prematurely, yet no harm follows, he shall surely be punished accordingly as the woman's husband imposes on him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. 23 "But if any harm follows, then you shall give life for life, 24 "eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 "burn for burn, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

In referencing the New King James version, it is clearer as to what Yah is telling us. If a man harms a pregnant woman which results in a premature birth, how do Yah's laws apply? The most glaring, overbearing or intense principle states a life for a life. This punishment of a life for a life is commanded by Yah when the incident appears to be accidental, with the woman and her child as collateral damage. How much more is Yah demanding when the taking of a life is deliberate?

Psalm 139:13 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. 14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. 16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. 17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! 18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

Strong's #03629. hylk kilyah, kil-yaw' - reins - feminine of 3627 (only in the plural); a kidney (as an essential organ); figuratively, the mind (as the interior self):--kidneys, reins.

Strong's #05526. Kko cakak, saw-kak' - covered - or sakak (Exod. 33:22) {saw-kak'}; a primitive root; properly, to entwine as a screen; by implication, to fence in, cover over, (figuratively) protect:--cover, defence, defend, hedge in, join together, set, shut up.

Strong's #06108. Mue `otsem, o'-tsem - substance - from 6105; power; hence, body:--might, strong, substance.

Strong's #01564. Mlg golem, go'-lem - unperfect - from 1563; a wrapped (and unformed mass, i.e. as the embryo):--substance yet being unperfect.

Strong's #03117. Mwy yowm, yome - continuance - from an unused root meaning to be hot; a day (as the warm hours), whether literal (from sunrise to sunset, or from one sunset to the next), or figurative (a space of time defined by an associated term), (often used adverb):--age, + always, + chronicals, continually(-ance), daily, ((birth-), each, to) day, (now a, two) days (agone), + elder, X end, + evening, + (for) ever(-lasting, -more), X full, life, as (so) long as (... live), (even) now, + old, + outlived, + perpetually, presently, + remaineth, X required, season, X since, space, then, (process of) time, + as at other times, + in trouble, weather, (as) when, (a, the, within a) while (that), X whole (+ age), (full) year(-ly), + younger.

I will reword part of Psalm 139:13-16 in the English we understand:

139:13 For thou has redeemed my kidneys, my mind, all of my internal being, thou has protected, defended me in my mother's womb. 14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. 15 My power, my body, my strength, was not hid from thee, when I was made privately, and curiously embroidered (covered) in the depths of the womb. 16 Thine eyes did see my power, my body, and my strength, yet being an unformed mass or embryo, and in Thy book all my members were written, which in a space of time were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

Throughout scripture we read of how precious we are to Yah. He created us; He formed us; He is present day in and day out to guide and direct us. These scriptures describe His forming us in the womb before there is any indication of life as we know it. Yet even with us in this most unformed and emerging condition, He tells us He knows us, knowing what we will be. It is a sin to take a life because that life is special and unique; a special and unique life that has not been allowed to take a living breath on its own.

Presently it seems, most people don't feel the need to read Yah's word. After all, it is far easier to allow one to be led astray by the media, the popular conjecture or beliefs on various topics in the secular world. Many believe a woman has a right to determine what she wants to do with her own body, never making an effort to find out when life begins. Why do we take man's word without going to the only source, God through His Word, who could answer the question "when does life begin"?

It is time to write down using Yah's words, why we should no longer accept the manmade fiction that a woman can do whatever she wants with her body

Matt. 18:1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? 2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, 3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. 4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me. 6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! 8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. 9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire. 10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. 11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

It is time to reveal some facts and to ask questions:

The exact percentage of baby murders done by Planned Parenthood is not known, however, the percentage that has been attributed and accepted by many of our congressional legislators is 94% of the total services they provide. They receive their funds or money from the following:

- From the young teen or woman seeking an abortion
- From the federal government (our tax dollars)
- From the harvesting and selling of baby parts (which reveals a truth, "not a medical procedure on a blob of tissue" but the intentional killing of a living embryo or fetus.)

A couple of questions to ask -- Where does it stop? When is enough – enough? When do we decide it is now time to euthanize the elderly, the bed ridden, the lame, the mentally and physically handicapped, the autistic, etc. We can go on rationalizing, extending the list – by saying the babies are unwanted, the elderly are non-productive and the rest are a financial burden on a system that is already bankrupt.

Concurrently we have National and Local Animal Rights Groups boycotting various firms because their products are perceived as being inhumane to animals. We boycott “Chapstick” and a children’s game called “Theft Auto” because it depicts cruelty to animals. Where is the outrage and boycotting of abortion for the defense of the totally innocent and helpless babies?

Those of us who have been blessed with having our own children and grandchildren can relate to the overwhelming feeling of love and protection that is felt when we sweep that innocent beautiful creation of Yah’s up into our arms! Yes, scripture says over and over again that God formed us and formed that special unique bundle of joy.

In summary, please consider this undeniable, but admittedly harshly stated fact: When you murder your son or daughter, you have murdered who they were to be—the man or woman who may have helped to bring peace, love, healing to the people of the world. Your murderous deeds brought death to your grandson, your granddaughter, your great-grandson or great-granddaughter—generations upon generations never to see the light of day, thwarting the role Yah had lovingly planned for each of them. Murdering your children is murdering Yah’s children and will bring His wrath upon you.

When we murder each precious life, we murder the very creative will of God.
